

Dear Keith

Another box of lovely and much needed books has arrived at Sasolia Primary School. Thank you very much for your kindness. The shelves are slowly filling up. We aim to be fully operational by January when the new school year begins.

God bless you and give you strenght to continue your good work.

Thanks once again.

Gwen Nunn